Hi small person,

It's nice to have you here today :-) How are you? Anything new in the UK? Will you come next time, too?

I am fine thank you. I am not sure if I will come to every meeting but I will be at the next meeting as S said that there will be ten C executives here, Hmm, 10 executives!, this is hardly to be seen on these meetings, but sounds interesting. However, I find more interesting to have you here with us, that's why I will come next time, too. :-) Then, can I invite you for a coffee next time? Perhaps we can talk a little bit better.. so far we can listen to a very nice arguments-battle, as always on sessions with C.. :-)

Why is it more interesting with me? I never say anything!

Coffee at the airport would be easiest if you fly.

OK, but I fly from Frankfurt and I guess you fly from Cologne. It is more interesting with you, because of the following reason. I've met you on some meetings in the UK some time ago, but we never had the chance to talk. Perhaps I am interested in what you say, what you think, what is your favourite colour, your favourite music, what flowers you like and perhaps if you like animals, books, what books, culture, if you prefer spaghetti or tagine, if you like sport or you prefer theater or movies, if you think that Germany is colder than the UK or not, if you like foreign languages and which you prefer, if you like to sleep till noon on Saturdays and Sundays or if you consider it a waste of time, ... and I could continue... next time? :-)

I find it interesting and actually nice, because perhaps we have a chance to get known us better and perhaps become friends. Also I find it interesting, because you are very nice girl and it must be a pleasure for a man to talk to a girl like you. So you see, I have a lot of reasons to say that it is interesting to have you with us.

I will have to leave now, catch a cab, going to catch a train, board a plane and catch a cab again .. :-)

So, if I am lucky, I will see you in one week.. and if I am more lucky, I will have a chance to invite you for a drink. For now I wish you a very nice time, nice evening and pleasant trip back home.

Hi M,

Hope you had a safe trip back. Although I have to tell you I do have a boyfriend ;).

Have a good week end,

Hi small person,

I'm not surprised that you have a boyfriend, the Princess more Queen will not wait for a Day to meet her true love and live it in deep emotions, art dreams to come true on W-day than passion than understandings. You are living it that's fine and beautiful, Princess. :-) I would be more surprised if you said: "Actually I have to tell you that I am single, so I am sure we can meet for coffee next time." :-) Don't you think, lady? :-))

I also have to tell you that I did not wait and have a girlfriend :-) . Although I can't wait for next coffee in Bonn.

Now it's like the dream in the http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ElIZgvorj_o so, we can dream and why not?, isn't it nice?

My world is colourful, but sometimes I prefer green to blue, black or other colours. Yellow, red and green together are balanced like energy and stability. And about my sleep.. I like to sleep long but mostly I can't. :-)

I wish you a nice weekend, too, and see you soon!
